MARINES Pride.
You'll find it in a few good men.
There's one thing you notice about his. He's not just any kind of man. He's one of a kind. From the determined look in his eye to the perfect cut of that dress blue uniform. He possesses an unusual quality that says he is something special. That quality is pride and you'll find it in every Marine. Take a good look at this man. If you think you see yourself in him and are looking for more information, call 1-800-MARINES. Who knows, you too may have what it takes to wear that dress blue uniform. Marines. The few. The proud. The Marines.
